MFC Petworth Monogram Guidebook

The source of inspiration for MFC Petworth Monogram is a specimen from the 1917 "Strong's Book of Designs". This popular lettering style has been incorporated into numerous film type foundries of the past, but lacked digital permanence. We've expanded the original All Capitals glyphset to include smallcaps to make monograms, and have added numerals and basic punctuation for extended basic typesetting.

MFC Petworth Monogram Styles

MFC Petworth Monogram supports one, two, and three letter monograms, as well as framed monograms using added flourishings of a similar style.

One letter monograms	Two letter monograms	Three letter monograms
Type any Capital letter	Type any two Capital letters	Type any lowercase + Capital + lowercase

MFC Petworth Monogram also includes a full set of numbers to allow for memorial personalization, as well as a limited set of punctuation for those that wish to use it for titling scenarios. The brace left and brace right keys also contain a set of floral ornaments.

Lastly, there are a few other subtle extras in MFC Petsworth Monogram. Enabling the Stylistic Alternates feature in the font will give access to an alternate W, w, and Q.
